Annual Conference

Shared Services for HE Strategies for results

Monday 21st November 2011, Eversheds HQ, London EC2

Speakers include:

Rt Hon David Willetts MP
Minister of State for Universities and Science

Daniel Perry
Head, Strategic Business,
JANET (UK)

Professor Malcolm Gillies
Vice-Chancellor and Chief Executive,
London Metropolitan University;
Chair, London Higher

Steve Butcher
Head of Procurement and Shared Services,
Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE)

Professor Ian Diamond
Principal and Vice-Chancellor,
University of Aberdeen

Chris Cobb
Chief Operating Officer and University
Secretary, University of London

Why you must attend this event:

- Get an insider's briefing from the Efficiency and Modernisation Task Group – and ensure your institution is maximising value for money
- Examine the opportunities of the Universities Modernisation Fund
- Define your strategy for shared services – understand the structural differences between outsourcing, sharing collaboratively and centralising
- Maximum learning value – watch the conference again online! All delegates receive post-event access to watch speaker presentations via the Policy Review TV service, AND can download all conference papers

Historically, Higher Education Institutions have ventured into shared 'back office' functions, but with impending budget cuts, you may be considering cost reductions and efficiency savings across the board. However, shared services are not without their hurdles - with complex technical, legal, VAT and HR issues to overcome.

By attending this conference you will explore fresh models of service provision and have a fantastic blueprint for saving money and improving efficiency.
