QS INTELLIGENCE UNIT

Trusted. Independent. Global.

QS STARS™ RATED FOR EXCELLENCE

Points Available – 1000

Core Criteria
600

Teaching 6 indicators	150
Employability 3 indicators	150
Research 5 indicators	150
Internationalization 7 indicators	150

Learning Environment
100

Facilities 6 indicators	100
Online/Distance 6 indicators	100

Specialist Criteria
200

Discipline Ranking 2 indicators	150
Accreditation 2 indicators	50

Advanced Criteria
100

Innovation 3 indicators	50
Culture 3 indicators	50
Access 4 indicators	50
Engagement 4 indicators	50

Version 4.0

"NTU is undergoing rapid development and the current ranking from QS is a confirmation that NTU today has a high international standing. NTU is participating in a QS Star audit to establish our strengths as a university across a broader set of criteria than can be measured in any ranking system, to provide valuable information for our many stakeholders: students, employers, fellow academics as well as our local community.

Professor Bertil Andersson, President-Designate,
Nanyang Technological University

DEAKIN UNIVERSITY

Represented by: Professor Ian Robottom, Associate Dean (International)

EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN UNIVERSITY

Represented by: Cahit Ezel, Assistant to Rector's Advisor

MONASH UNIVERSITY

Represented by: Stephanie Fahey, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (global engagement)

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND

Represented by: Anna Cicarelli, Deputy Vice Chancellor International

UNIVERSIDAD SAN FRANCISCO DE QUITO

Represented by: Daniel Cordova, Director Office of International Programs

UNIVERSITA DI PISA

Represented by: Laura Nelli, Promotion Manager