Welcome to Twit2Fit!
Let the community on Twit2Fit help you achieve your goals. Even if it's just blogging about your journey, let us help you!
Twit2Fit members have two roles. 1. Talk about your progress, success, failures and more here, on Twitter using the #twit2fit hashtag or wherever you like to share. 2. Watch for others using the hashtag and provide encouragement, congratulations, support and more. There's a give and a get there. Make sure you do both. WE can help all of US get fit in many ways, but we have to do it together!
