Improving the Disabled Student Experience in Higher Education

Dr Helen May
Senior Adviser
The Higher Education Academy

Improving the disabled student experience:
Is about making both anticipatory adjustments (for everyone) and reasonable adjustments (for individuals).

Improving the disabled student experience:
Requires change to institutional policies/systems and individual practice/attitudes simultaneously.

Improving the disabled student experience:
Is not about doing different things, but doing things differently.

Improving the disabled student experience:
Is a shared responsibility and involves all staff and functions of the institution.

Improving the disabled student experience:
Is an ongoing process of institutional enhancement.

Improving the disabled student experience:
Should involve disabled students in the process.
