14-19 Reforms
Rural Challenges

Mary Roche
Transport Policy Manager
Norfolk County Council

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Reforms Suite

- More flexible opportunities for YP
- Raising of participation age
- NEET and IAG Strategies
- Consolidation of provision planning

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Flexible Opportunities

- GCSE and A Levels
- Diplomas
- Apprenticeships
- Foundation Learning Tier
- Work with accredited training

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

RPA

2013 – to age 17

2015 – to age 18

Could be:

- Full time education
- Part time education or training
- Work based learning eg apprenticeship

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Other Reform Strands

- Reducing NEETs
- IAG Strategy
- LSC Transfer

RALG

Critical Success Factors

- Collaboration
- Common timetabling
- Curriculum development
- Transport

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Collaboration

- 14-19 Strategic Partnership
- Consortia planning
- Employer engagement
- Parent/student sign up

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Common Timetabling

Advantages

- Core subjects access at host location
- Course capacity building

Disadvantages

- Vehicle availability
- Part time demand
- Unusual travel patterns

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Curriculum Development

- What, how and where to provide
- Who to provide to
- Foreign policy
- Access arrangements
- Capacity to deliver

RALG

Transport

- Cheapest - v - most attractive
- Capacity building
- Peak availability
- Increased costs
- Decreased funding
- Safety and security

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Transport…..or not?

- Peripatetic tutors
- E – learning
- Mobile provision
- Localised provision

RALG

Lessons Learned

- Team work rules
- Strategic provision planning is key
- Access is a vital part of planning
- One size does not fit all
- Transport Co-ordinators make a difference

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service

Thank you for listening.

Contact Details

mary.roche@norfolk.gov.uk

01603 638155

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

RALG

Norfolk County Council
at your service