Drivers for Change: why FE cannot ignore the challenge ahead

15 September 2010

Glynne Stanfield, Partner
0845 497 3806
glynnestanfield@eversheds.com

EVERSHEDS

- Drivers for change
- Policy paper
- Trends
- Models in workshops

- Coalition Government pressures
  - Education Bill
  - Reduce taxpayers spend
  - Move risk to private sector

- Sector pressures
  - Shared services
  - Awarding bodies
  - Financial

Education Bill

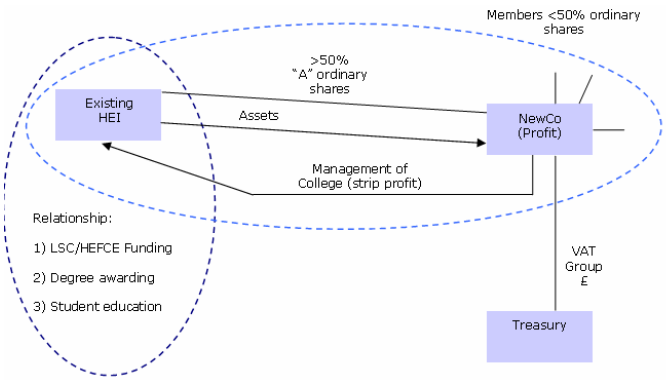
- allow investment in FEC
- allow takeovers of FEC's?
- current model



- multi jurisdiction institution?
- degree awarding powers
- Intervention powers?

Shared Services

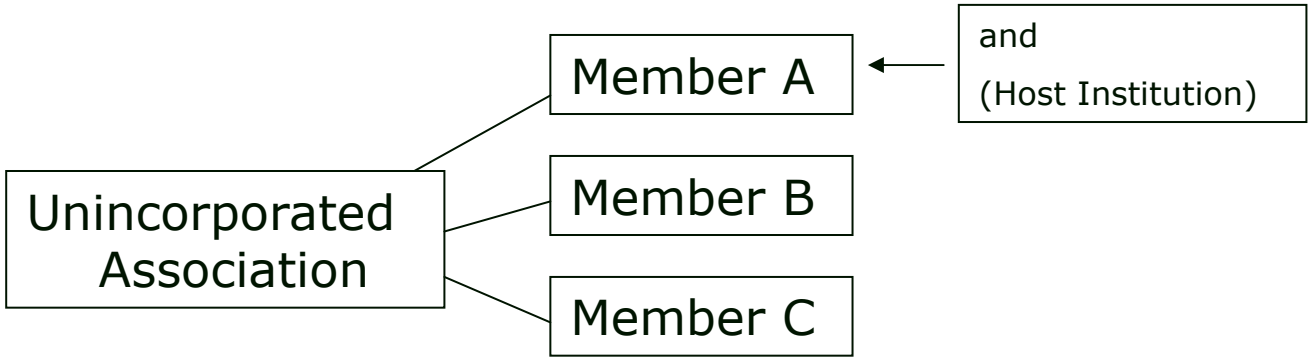
- The current model



- VAT issue: possible change ?

Awarding bodies

- Current FEC spend
- 157 pathfinder project

Financial pressure

- Solvency
- Governors liability / willingness to be involved
- Principal + SMT personal liability?
- Governance structures
  - groups
  - two tier
  - choice of legal entity

www.eversheds.com

© EVERSHEDS LLP 2010 Eversheds LLP is a limited liability partnership.