"The Council will benefit from a truly Unified Communications solution, providing over 5,000 government employees with a platform to effectively communicate, from anywhere at anytime, enabling new forms of flexible working and significantly improving the quality of public services offered."

Alan Shields, Strategy & Technical Architecture Team Manager
Cambridgeshire County Council