Transnational Education (TNE) – The Challenge of Quality Assurance

A case study of

Fatima Jinnah Women University (FJWU)

By

Dr Maryam Rab

FJWU – An overview

- Established December 1998
- First women's university
- Started with 227 students, now 5000
- Total graduates, 8500
- Reported/recorded employed graduates, >3000

  (excludes women working from home)

FJWU and TNE

- What is TNE for FJWU
  - Franchised
  - Exported
  - Recognised Qualification

Higher Education Leadership & Management (HELM)

- FJWU started planning its first TNE in 2005
- Outcome of a collaborative link with Institute of Education, University of London
- The pilot cohort inducted in 2007
- First Graduate in 2012

TNE and Quality Assurance

- Accredited degree
- Comparable standards/credits
- Transparent, Consistent ands Reliable program
- Qualified faculty
- Standardized Admission Criteria

Thank you

- Contact Details;
  - registrar@fjwu.edu.pk
  - merriam_r@yahoo.com
- University Website
  - www.fjwu.edu.pk