Benefits
Status
Voice

Institute for Learning IfL

Teaching and learning: what does 'outstanding' look like?

NSA 'FE Inspection and Skills' conference, 18 September 2012

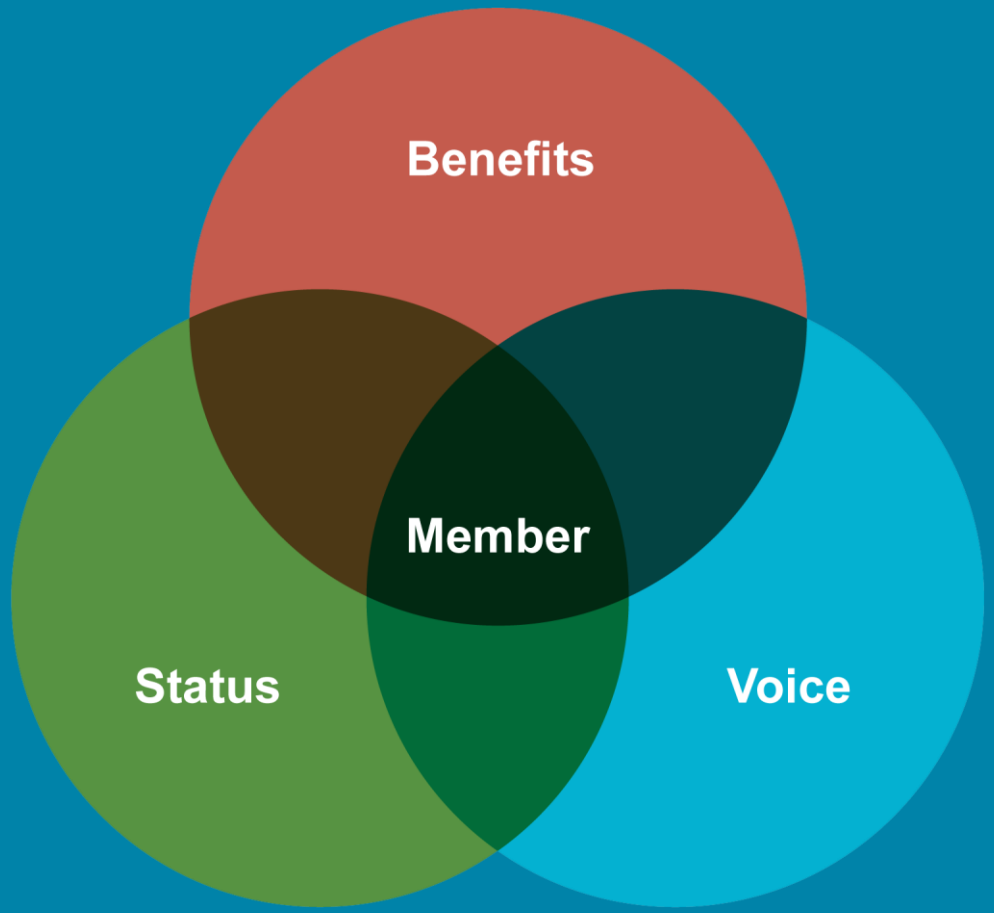
Toni Fazaeli
Chief Executive IfL

IfL's purpose - to support excellence in practice, through individual membership

IfL professional body membership now on voluntary basis

Back to our roots 2002, when created by FE teachers and voluntary

More than 75,000 members and growing daily



Teaching and Learning – the process - at the heart – doing the right thing in partnership with learners

Institute for Learning IfL

Teaching and training professionals across breadth of sector

Institute for Learning IfL

Other professionals and excellent practice – freedoms and accountability

Institute for Learning IfL

Professionals open to learning
David Brailsford (and Bradley Wiggins) – doing the right thing

Teamwork = learning

Where are we heading?

How high and hard is this – and inspection of journey – the process – doing the right thing

Hospital patient – outcome

Hospital patient
The process – doing the right thing

Small fires – not a volcano – links with inspection

Inspection - what do teachers and trainers say and want

- Before
- During
- After

Gold medal teaching and learning - short, medium and longer term

Cc Nagarjun Kandukuru

Confident, informed, thoughtful, learning, assertive, getting the most from inspection

‘The best we can be’